STYLE SHOW TO BE MARCH 15

Phoenix Merchants to Put on Gala Attire for the Annual Style Show—Auto Parade Will Precede the Opening

Phoenix is surely going to have another "Style and Fashion Show." The matter has been agitated for some time, but no definite date had been set, until the committee on arrangements met yesterday at the chamber of commerce and decided on Monday, March 15, 1915, between the hours of 7:30 and 9.

The auto men of the city, at a meeting yesterday at the Adams, decided to aid and enhance general business activity by opening the festivities with a big auto parade.

The machines in the parade will be decorated. There will be two classes of prizes, for the best decorated autos. One for cars belonging to dealers, and one for private drivers.

All downtown merchants are favorably impressed with the idea. The success of the show last year, was far beyond the expectations of its promoters. It is estimated that at least ten thousand people surged through the stores and looked at the wares of the Phoenix merchants.

The stores for the spring show, will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The business houses handling wearing apparel, will have their spring stocks on exhibit, giving the feminine portion of the crowds an insight into what will be the mode this summer. Special music has been arranged for at a number of the stores.

"MASTER KEY" IN REPUBLICAN

Great Universal Feature Story to Appear Weekly in This Paper and at Regale Theater—Starts Next Sunday

Announcing the amazing serial, "The Master Key" for the Sunday Republican.

A contract has just been closed with the Robyn syndicate by Manager Luntz of the California Film Exchange, which gives to the Sunday Republican one of the greatest features, entitled "The Master Key," a series by James Fleming Wilson, now about to appear in many of America's leading journals.

It is in connection with the motion picture films of the same story that this series is to be run in one-page installments—the Regale Theater, handling the celluloid as this paper handles the type.

The story of the Master Key is a thrilling one, full of incident and color, and woven around love, money, mystery, beautiful women and crime. The scene is laid in California, where two men are fighting for the possession of a mine.

The Master Key will be worth reading. The start of it will be in next Sunday's Republican.

DENVER JEWELER TO MAKE THIS CITY HIS HOME

Eugene Cella Becomes Manager of Arizona Jewelry and Curio Company

When Fred Myers, of the advertising department of the Republican, and Eugene Cella, for several years connected with the Security Jewelry company of Denver, went to school together, or perhaps didn't go to school together but played "hooky" together, neither of them thought that what was then the heart of the Great American desert, held a future for them. They often glanced at the map of the United States and all they noted when they found Arizona was a yellow spot with little black dots indicating sand. Not in a thousand years thought they, if they considered the subject at all, would that dreary section mean anything to them singly or jointly.

But later maps changed the yellow spots changed to greenest green, for water properly handled began to make the Salt River valley blossom like the rose. And Myers came out here and made good.

Now comes Cella. He is here to assume the management of the Arizona Jewelry and Curio company. And he and Myers have had their reunion. Cella was employed by the Security Jewelry company in Denver, when Mack Gardner, of the Arizona Jewelry and Curio company, was manager of the Denver concern. Recently Gardner purchased the interest of Louis Lowenheim, his partner in the Phoenix concern, and at once set about finding a suitable manager. He hit upon Cella and made him an offer. That the offer was accepted is evidenced by the fact that he is already here and in charge. Cella says that Phoenix and the Salt River valley is a surprise to him and that he is glad to be here.

HERE FROM FLAGSTAFF—Mr. and Mrs. Pollock of Flagstaff will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell Monday and Tuesday.

BISHOP MOUZON HERE FOR WEEK

The coming week will be devoted to much work of preparation on the part of the Southern Methodists of this city and its suburbs, for the meeting that will open next Sunday at Central church with Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon officiating as commander in chief. Bishop Mouzon is one of the great men of Southern Methodism, who has served the church for many years in many capacities notably as pastor in Kansas City and San Antonio Texas, and as dean of the Theological school of Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, the leading institution of Southern Methodism in Texas.

The general conference before the last one he was elevated to the episcopacy and has since taken high rank as an administrator of great foresight and judgment. However, he always desires to retain his pulpit facility and on this account gives much of his time to revival services throughout the connection.

It is considered no little compliment to Phoenix that one of the general superintendents of the church, there are not many of whom should find time to come to this city to preach for two weeks. When it is considered that he is one of the few to whom more than 2,000,000 Southern Methodists look for leadership, the concession can be better understood.

Bishop Mouzon is one of the great preachers of the south. His platform ability has been recognized in every section wherein the church operates. The opening sermon will be delivered next Sunday morning. During the meeting for which a great chorus choir is being organized, Rev. J. Allan Ray of Bethel, will conduct the music. Mr. Ray has had large experience in the evangelistic field and is perfectly capable to do this work. Additions will be made to the musical equipment, a trombone, two pianos and a violin being a part of this addition.

To make your wire fence last just buy PAGE fence first

Reasons Why-

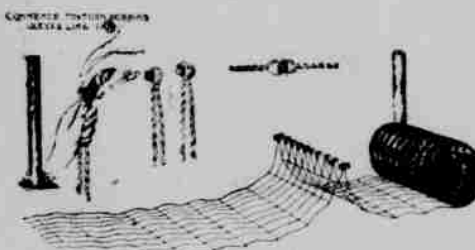

Page Wire

The wire in our fences is not only made from steel especially prepared, but it is specially drawn, and receives the physical treatment absolutely necessary to bring it to maximum strength, toughness and springiness—the "three graces" of PAGE WIRE.

Page Weave

Page Fence is not stuck nor tied together, nor cut into short sections and wrapped together, but consists of continuous wires, both horizontal and perpendicular, actually woven, the one with the other, every foot receiving hand labor. The Page Knot is the only Real Knot applied to wire fence construction, and has no equal for smoothness and strength. IT CAN'T COME OFF!

Another reason for PAGE superiority is because it is the only fence that offers the convenient, secure and durable "Splicing Device" by which two rolls are easily tied together as shown in this cut.
